Definitions

1. This policy adopts the terms and definitions in the Universal Code of Conduct (the “UCC”) to Prevent and Address Maltreatment in Sport, as amended from time to time (the “UCC”). The following terms are defined within this policy as:
 - a) “Complainant” – the party making a Complaint under s. 17 of this policy;

- b) "Complaint" - a complaint of a breach of s. 15 of this policy made in writing to a Complaint Officer;
- c) "Complaint Officer" - means the Canadian Paralympic Committee Safe sport Officer. Should this position be vacant or unavailable for any reason then the role of Complaint Officer will defer to the CPC CEO or their designate.
- d) "CPC" - is the Canadian Paralympic Committee;
- e) "Days" - means any day of the week, including weekends and holidays;
- f) "Individuals" - means all individuals engaged in activities with the CPC including athletes, coaches, team managers, officials, volunteers, suppliers, contractors, parents/guardians, directors, officers, members, member representatives and committee members of the CPC;
- g) "Respondent" - The party alleged to have violated this policy in a Complaint;
- h) "signed" - means that the name of the Complainant has been affixed to the Complaint in any way, including by conventional or digital signature or the representation of the Complainant's name by letters; and
- i) "writing" includes words written, printed, typewritten, painted, engraved, lithographed, photographed or represented or reproduced by any mode of representing or reproducing words in visible, audible or any form and includes writing instrument and paper, email, text message, social media and mobile application.

Purpose

2. The Canadian Paralympic Committee ("CPC") is committed to providing an athlete centred environment which is safe, welcoming and inclusive, where all Individuals are treated with respect and characterized by the values of fairness, integrity and open communication.
3. Membership in CPC, as well as participation in its activities, brings with it many benefits and privileges. At the same time, members and participants are expected to fulfill certain responsibilities and obligations including, but not limited to, complying with the CPC's policies, bylaws, rules and regulations.
4. This policy identifies the standard of behaviour that is expected of CPC members and participants. CPC and the Individuals who comprise it are committed to being leaders on the world stage. Among other essential skills, this requires a high standard of behaviour. Irresponsible behaviour by Individuals can result in severe damage to the reputation, brand, and integrity of the CPC and Canada as a whole. Consequently, this policy is organized as follows:
 - a) Responsibilities of Individuals, athletes, coaches and parents - this part of the policy says that not living up to these responsibilities can result in consequences such as informal corrective action or a more severe sanction for an individual found by CPC under this policy to have engaged in Prohibited Conduct;

- b) Prohibited conduct - this part of the policy sets out conduct that is prohibited by CPC, that may be subject to a Complaint, and that CPC may punish an individual for engaging in;
- c) Process for making a Complaint that an Individual has engaged in Prohibited Conduct;
- d) Process for investigating and deciding whether Prohibited Conduct occurred or did not occur and what sanctions CPC will apply, if any; and
- e) Process after a decision and sanctions are implemented.

Application of this Policy

- 5. This policy applies to all Individuals.
- 6. This policy only applies to Complaints or allegations that may arise during the course of CPC business, activities and events, including but not limited to the Paralympic Games (Summer & Winter) and the Parapan American Games, travel associated with CPC activities, and any CPC meetings and corporate events. This policy does not prevent and may supplement discipline from being applied by CPC or another organization.
- 7. Discipline matters and Complaints arising within the business, activities or events organized by entities other than the CPC, including its NSO Members, will be dealt with pursuant to the policies of those other entities unless otherwise requested and accepted by CPC in the sole discretion of CPC.
- 8. Nothing in this policy overrides any rights or remedies CPC employees may have, including under other CPC policies or applicable law.
- 9. If the Canadian sport system adopts processes inconsistent with this policy, CPC may recognize such a Safe Sport System by board resolution, and Safe Sport System processes will resolve any inconsistency with this policy.

Responsibilities of Individuals

- 10. All Individuals are required to fulfill the responsibilities listed in this policy and failure to do so will be a breach of this policy which may result in corrective action by persons in authority. A breach of ss. 10 - 14 of this policy is not in itself the basis of a Complaint under this policy. A breach of ss. 10 - 14 of this policy is an aggravating factor in determining the sanction for Prohibited Conduct under this policy.
- 11. All Individuals have a responsibility to:
 - a) Maintain and enhance the dignity and self-esteem of Individuals by:
 - (i) Demonstrating respect to individuals regardless of disability, language, body type, physical characteristics, athletic ability, gender identity, gender expression,

- ancestry, colour, ethnic or national origin, race, sexual orientation, age, marital status, religion, religious belief, political belief or economic status;

- j) Refrain from intervening inappropriately in personal affairs that are outside the generally accepted jurisdiction of a coach;
- k) Act in the best interest of the athlete's development as a whole person;
- l) Recognize the power inherent in the position of coach and respect and promote the rights of all participants in sport. This is accomplished by establishing and following procedures for confidentiality (right to privacy); informed participation and fair and reasonable treatment. Informal Resolution

16. CPC encourages individuals to first attempt to resolve conduct issues informally, whenever possible. If an informal resolution fails to resolve the issue, or if the circumstances are such that informal resolution is not possible or appropriate, the formal process outlined below of reporting a complaint should be used. Options for informal resolution include speaking to the person and informing the individual that the conduct was unwelcome or inappropriate and asking for it to stop.

Reporting a Complaint

17. Any Individual may make a complaint of a breach of s. 15 of this policy (a "Complaint") to a Complaint Officer.
18. A Complaint must be signed and in writing and must be made within 90 days from the date on which the person knew or ought to have known that the incident complained of occurred.

Anonymous Complaints will not be accepted. Complaints should contain particulars of the alleged breach, including:

- a) the name and contact details of the Complainant(s);
- b) details including dates, times, locations of the incident or incidents;
- c) description of action and account of dialogue;
- d) the name(s) of Individual(s) alleged to have engaged in Prohibited Conduct;
- e) if the complainant is aware of any witnesses or other individuals who may have other relevant information, the names of those individuals; and
- f) any corrective action taken to date.

19. The above list of suggested particulars is not exhaustive and the absence of a listed suggested particular will not in itself be determinative of whether or not a Respondent has engaged in Prohibited Conduct.

20. A complainant wishing to file a Complaint beyond the 90 days must provide a written statement giving reasons for an exemption to this limitation. The decision to accept, or not accept, the Complaint outside the 90 -day period will be in the sole discretion of the individual who received the Complaint as identified in section 17 above. This decision may not be appealed.

21. If at any point during in the proceedings under this policy, the Complainant becomes reluctant, or unable to continue, it will be at the sole discretion of the CPC to act as the Complainant or not to proceed with the Complaint in accordance with this policy. In such instances where the CPC chooses to act as the Complainant, the CPC will appoint a representative to take the place of the Complainant.

22. At the CPC's discretion, the CPC may act as the Complainant and initiate the Complaint process under the terms of this policy. In such cases, the CPC will identify an individual to represent the CPC.

Procedures

23. Upon receiving a Complaint, the Complaint Officer will within 30 days:

- a) Determine whether the Complaint is frivolous and within the jurisdiction of this policy;
- b) enquire if the parties would be willing to attempt to resolve the issue by way of mediation pursuant to ss. 27 - 28 of this policy;
- c) Coordinate all administrative aspects and set timelines; and
- d) Provide administrative assistance and logistical support to the Panel as required.

24. If the Complaint Officer determines the Complaint is:

- a) Frivolous or outside the jurisdiction of this policy, the Complaint will be dismissed immediately;
 - b) Not frivolous and within the jurisdiction of this policy, the Complaint Officer will notify the parties that the Complaint has been accepted and advise of the applicable next steps.
25. Because the conduct prohibited by this policy is very serious, if the Complaint Officer determines the Complaint has been accepted, the Complaint Officer will appoint an Investigator to conduct an Investigation and the Investigator's Report, must be considered by the Discipline Panel prior to a decision being made on the Complaint.
26. This policy does not prevent an appropriate person having authority from taking immediate corrective action to stop the behaviour being complained of provided that the Individual is told the nature of the infraction and has an opportunity to provide information concerning the incident. Complaints occurring within competitions may also be dealt with immediately, if necessary, by a CPC representative in a position of authority, provided the Individual being disciplined is told the nature of the infraction and has an opportunity to provide information concerning the incident. In such situations, sanctions will be for the duration of the competition only. Further sanctions may be applied but only after review of the matter in accordance with the procedures set out in this policy.

Alternative Dispute Resolution

27. If the Complaint is accepted, the Complaint Officer will enquire if the parties would be willing to attempt to resolve the issue by way of mediation. If the parties consent to mediation, the matter will then be handled in accordance with the CPC's Alternative Dispute Resolution policy.
28. Should one of the parties not agree to mediation, or should the matter not be resolved through the Alternate Dispute Resolution policy, the Complaint Officer will appoint an Investigator to conduct an investigation and prepare an Investigator's Report in accordance with this policy. Should the Investigator's Report determine on a balance of probabilities, the Respondent(s) engaged in Prohibited Conduct the Complaint Officer will appoint a Discipline Panel to hear the Complaint in accordance with this policy.

Investigation

29. The Investigator will be a person experienced in discrimination or harassment matters and investigation techniques and may be an outside professional. The Investigator will be independent from CPC and from the parties. The Investigator will carry out the investigation in a timely manner and at the conclusion of the investigation will submit a written Investigator's Report to the Discipline Panel.
30. Taking into account the nature and severity of the alleged Prohibited Conduct, the CPC board may, by board resolution, in exceptional circumstances suspend the Respondent from certain CPC teams, events or activities while the investigation is completed. Whether or not a Respondent is paid during an investigation is a matter between the Respondent and their employer or the terms of any contract between the Respondent and the organization for which the Respondent provides services.

31. The Investigator's Report should include a summary of evidence from the parties (including both statements of facts, if applicable). The Investigator's Report will give the Investigator's opinion on:
 - a) whether or not, on a balance of probabilities, the Respondent(s) engaged in Prohibited Conduct; and
 - b) a recommendation on what sanctions should be implemented under ss. 42 - 44, if any.
32. The Investigator's Report will be provided to the parties and the names and identifying details of any witnesses may be redacted at the discretion of the Investigator. The provision of the Investigator's Report is conditional on the parties not distributing the Report to any third party without the written permission of the CPC.
33. Should the Investigator find possible criminal offences have been committed, the Investigator will notify CPC and CPC will retain legal counsel, in the jurisdiction of the possible criminal offence, to advise CPC of its disclosure requirements to law enforcement, child protection, or other agencies, if any.

Discipline Panel and Hearing

34. If the Investigator determines on a balance of probabilities, the Respondent(s) engaged in Prohibited Conduct the Complaint Officer will appoint a Discipline Panel of three persons. The Complaint Officer will appoint one of those persons to serve as the Chair of the Discipline Panel. Members of the Discipline Panel will have had no involvement with the alleged infraction, or the decision being appealed, and will be free from any other bias or conflict of interest. At least one member of the Discipline Panel will be a practicing or retired lawyer and the other members will have experience in human resources, management, harassment, safe sport or a related field.
35. Having regard to the nature of the Complaint and the potential consequences of any resulting sanctions, the Discipline Panel, will decide if the format of the hearing will be by way of documentary review, teleconference, in-person hearing or a combination thereof. This decision may not be appealed.

Optional Preliminary Meeting

36. The Discipline Panel may determine in its sole discretion that the circumstances of the Complaint warrant a preliminary meeting. The Discipline Panel may delegate to one of its members the authority to deal with preliminary matters to be conducted by optional preliminary meeting, or in writing to the parties, which may include but are not limited to:

- a) Determination if the format of the hearing will be by way of documentary review, teleconference, in-person hearing or a combination thereof;
- b) Date and location of the hearing, if necessary;
- c) Timelines for the exchange of documents;
- d) Clarification of issues in dispute;
- e) Any procedural matters including order and procedure of the hearing;
- f) Remedies sought;
- g) Evidence to be brought before the hearing;
- h) Identification of any witnesses; and
- i) Any other procedural matter that may assist in expediting the hearing.

Documentary Review Hearing

37. If the hearing will be held by way of documentary submissions, the Discipline Panel will govern the hearing fairly and as it sees fit, provided that:
- a) All parties are given a reasonable opportunity to provide written submissions to the Panel, to review written submissions of the other parties, and if a party raises a new point, the other party may answer on that point; and
 - b) The applicable principles and timelines set out by the Panel are respected.

Oral Hearing

38. If the hearing will be held by way of a teleconference or in person hearing, the Discipline Panel will govern the hearing fairly and as it sees fit, provided that:
- a) The parties will be given seven days written notice of the day, time and place of the hearing;
 - b) The parties will be provided copies of all evidence to be relied upon in a form that is accessible to them;
 - c) Decisions of the Discipline Panel will be by majority vote;
 - d) Discipline Panel members will refrain from communicating with the parties except in the presence of, or copy to, the other parties;
 - e) The parties may be accompanied by a representative including legal counsel at the party's own expense; additional representatives will be granted based on the circumstances. For example, a translator or as part of an accommodation,
 - f) The parties will have the right to present evidence and argument;
 - g) The formal law and rules of evidence will not apply except where submissions are made that are unduly repetitious;

- h) Any party potentially affected by the matter may be made party to the hearing by the Discipline Panel;
- i) The Discipline Panel may request that any witness be present at the hearing or submit written evidence in advance of the hearing;
- j) Each party will bear their own costs;
- k) Once appointed, the Discipline Panel will have the authority to abridge or extend timelines associated with any aspect of the hearing.

39. A Party may waive their right to participate in the hearing and the hearing may proceed in any event.

40. In fulfilling its duties, the Discipline Panel may obtain independent legal advice. If legal advice is provided during the hearing relating to the admissibility of evidence or the conduct of the hearing, the legal advice will be disclosed to the parties and the parties may make submissions on that legal advice to Discipline Panel.

Decision

41. After hearing and/or reviewing the matter, the Discipline Panel will determine on a balance of probabilities if the Respondent(s) engaged in Prohibited Conduct, and if so, will determine the appropriate sanction to be imposed. The Panel's written decision, with reasons, will be distributed to all parties and the Complaint Officer within 14 days of the conclusion of the hearing, unless the Discipline Panel advises the parties that additional time is required prior to the expiry of the 14-day period and provides a reasonable timeframe estimate for the release of the decision. Further distribution of the decision is subject to the Confidentiality section of this policy.

Sanctions

42. When the Discipline Panel has determined that the Respondent(s) engaged in Prohibited Conduct, the Panel may apply an appropriate sanction that communicates to the public CPC's strong disapproval of Prohibited Conduct, educates the Respondent(s) and the sport community, protects the sport community from the Respondent(s) and deters future individuals from engaging in Prohibited Conduct. Taking these factors into consideration, the following disciplinary sanctions may be applied as a single sanction or in combination:

- a) Private written reprimand;
- b) Public written reprimand;
- c) Requirement to give a public or private written apology to the Complainant or others the Discipline Panel requires;
- d) Removal of certain privileges;

- i) Any other sanction as may be considered appropriate for the offense including the complete range of sanctions in the UCC.

43. Unless the Panel decides otherwise, any disciplinary sanctions will commence immediately. Failure to comply with a sanction as determined by the Panel will result in the automatic suspension of the Respondent from all related CPC activities until such time as compliance occurs.

44. In applying sanctions, the Panel may have regard to the following aggravating or mitigating circumstances:

- a) The nature and severity of the incident;
- b) Whether responsibilities in ss. 10 - 14 were breached;
- c) Whether the incident is a first offense or has occurred repeatedly;

Timelines

45. If the circumstances of the Complaint are such that this policy will not allow a timely conclusion, or if the circumstances of the Complaint are such the Complaint cannot be concluded within the timelines dictated in this policy, the Complaint Officer may direct that these timelines be revised.

Confidentiality

46. CPC will immediately disclose any incident of harassment, abuse or discrimination related to any CPC Sport Canada funded projects or programming to the Minister or government official responsible for CPC's Sport Canada funding or their designate.

47. Subject to ss. 33, 41, 46 and 48, the discipline and Complaints process is confidential involving only the parties, the Complaint Officer and the Discipline Panel. Once initiated and until a decision is released, none of the parties will disclose confidential information relating to the discipline or Complaint to any person not involved in the proceedings.

Records and Distribution of Decisions

48. Prohibited Conduct that results in discipline will be recorded and maintained by CPC. While confidentiality will be maintained, any decision rendered under this policy may be disclosed to any third party deemed appropriate by the CPC, by the CPC in response to any appeals, or as required by law. Likewise, names of persons affected may be disclosed to the extent necessary to give effect to any decision imposed.

Appeals Procedure

49. A decision of the Discipline Panel may be appealed in accordance with the CPC Appeals Policy.

50. On application in writing by the Respondent, the Discipline Panel may hold any sanctions applied in abeyance until all appeals are resolved. In so deciding, the Discipline Panel will consider the severity of the sanction imposed and the potential danger the Respondent poses to the sport community.

51. No earlier than 8 years after a ban is issued from all or from certain CPC teams, events or activities under this policy, an Individual so banned may request the ban be rescinded by applying in writing to the CPC board of directors who will decide in its unfettered discretion whether, and on what terms, to do so.

Criminal Infractions

52. When it is brought to the attention of CPC that an Individual has been charged with an offence under the Criminal Code or the criminal law in place in another jurisdiction where the individual alleged to have committed the offence is present, CPC will not take further disciplinary action while criminal charges are still pending. All timeframes will be held in abeyance until the criminal proceedings and all related appeals are concluded.
